News Updates

Education at a reasonable cost
St. Louis Post-Dispatch - April 12, 2018
In January, St. Louis television station KMOV (Channel 4) aired concerns in an editorial segment about the cost of education at the University of Missouri.

Political expert weighs in on whether Greitens can survive calls for resignation
ABC 17 News - April 12, 2018
Peverill Squire, a political science professor at the University of Missouri, said Greitens is in a difficult position now that members of his own party have called on him to step down as governor.

Expert gives insight into abuse trauma in wake of Greitens report
Missourian – April 12, 2018
The confusion is not unusual, said Tina Bloom, who teaches in MU’s Sinclair School of Nursing.

Seven years after Joplin, shelter construction dropping
KRCG News - April 12, 2018
University of Missouri spokesman Christian Basi said it’s not feasible for the campus to build a few shelters for this many people.

Challenges of working with Amish
Morning Ag Clips - April 12, 2018
New research from the University of Missouri has found that agricultural professionals such as conservation agents, when working with Plain (Amish and conservative Mennonite) communities, face a number of challenges in the realms of communication and conservation.

United Airlines exhausts revenue guarantee
Columbia Daily Tribune - April 12, 2018
Several taxpayer-funded organizations — including the city of Columbia, Jefferson City, Boone County and University of Missouri — and local businesses contributed to the Central Missouri Air Service fund last year, which guaranteed United Airlines up to $600,000 in its first year of operation if revenue was short because of empty seats.

New website shows Missouri health problems down to zip code level
KY3 - April 12, 2018
The Missouri Foundation for Health, the Missouri Hospital Association, and University of Missouri Extension worked together to create the site.
Pork Checkoff awards 21 students with 2018 scholarship | AGDAILY
AGDAILY - April 13, 2018
Kelsey Batson of the University of Missouri-Columbia received a scholarship.

University of Missouri System

University of Missouri facing long-term funding shortfall
Columbia Daily Tribune - April 12, 2018
The University of Missouri System faces a budget shortfall of as much as $200 million a year by fiscal 2023 without new sources of revenue and additional spending, Chief Financial Officer Ryan Rapp told the Board of Curators on Thursday.

Curators weigh increasing tuition for fall 2018 to combat budget cuts
Columbia Missourian - April 12, 2018
A case for voting to raise tuition between 1 and 2.1 percent next fall was presented to the UM System Board of Curators during a meeting Thursday at Missouri University of Science and Technology.

Missouri S&T professor receives President’s Award for Sustained Career Excellence
Phelpscountyfocus.com - April 12, 2018
University of Missouri System President Mun Choi surprised a Missouri University of Science and Technology faculty member with a President’s Award at a Cybersecurity Summit meeting in Rolla April 11.

University of Missouri-Kansas City

Overdose Deaths from Opioids Keep Rising in the US*
Voice of America – April 12, 2018
Inside a secure room at the University of Missouri, doctors from across the state can talk to trained specialists. Doug Burgess, M.D., assistant professor with the University of Missouri-Kansas City, assists with the program.

Delta Zeta spurs conversation on sexual violence
University News – April 11, 2018
While the rate of sexual harassment on college campuses continues to grow, such issues often seem too risky for administration to address. To keep the situation from being overlooked, the UMKC chapter of Delta Zeta recently took matters into their own hands.

‘The Tree’ poses tough questions about aging
The University of Kansas – April 11, 2018
“The Tree” was directed by Stephen Wallace Pruitt and co-written by Pruitt and his wife, Mary Settle Pruitt. Stephen Wallace Pruitt is a professor and chair of business and finance at the Henry W. Bloch School of Management at the University of Missouri-Kansas City.

Seniors Start Reaching for the Stars with the Semester Winding Down
DigitalBURG.com – April 11, 2018
Dakota Persinger plans on attending law school at either Washburn University or the University of Missouri-Kansas City.
Expert Molecular and Pediatric Pathologist, Sahibu Sultan Habeebu, MD, PhD, FACP, will be recognized as a 2018 Top Doctor in Kansas City, Missouri

PR NewsChannel – April 11, 2018

Sahibu Sultan Habeebu, M.D., Ph.D., FACP, is an associate professor of Pediatric Pathology at the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Medicine.

C. Mauli Agrawal – Higher Education

Black News Zone – April 11, 2018

C. Mauli Agrawal has been named chancellor of the University of Missouri-Kansas City, effective June 20. Related headline: Diverse Issues in Higher Education

Missouri University of Science and Technology

AI-Related Liability Considerations

Claims Journal – April 12

The recent deadly crash of an Uber autonomous car in Arizona highlights the evolving risk related to artificial intelligence (AI)...Dr. Keng Siau, professor and chair of business and information technology at Missouri S&T, and Weiyu Wang, a Missouri S&T graduate student in information science and technology.

Missouri S&T professor receives President’s Award for Sustained Career Excellence

Phelpscountyfocus.com – April 12

University of Missouri System President Mun Choi surprised a Missouri University of Science and Technology faculty member with a President’s Award at a Cybersecurity Summit meeting in Rolla April 11.

Sunrise Beach student part of MST national entrepreneurship competition

Lake News Online – April 12

A student from Sunrise Beach is part of a Missouri University of Science and Technology (MST) student team selected as a finalist in a national entrepreneurship challenge.

Forbes ranks MU #164 on best value list

KRCG News – April 12

Also on the list were Truman State University at #192, Missouri University of Science and Technology at #110, and Washington University at #79.

Missouri S&T’s Baja car racing team ready to compete

Phelpscountyfocus.com – April 12

Students from Missouri University of Science and Technology will demonstrate the engineering principles of off-road vehicles by racing a student-designed and -built Baja vehicle...

School Notes, April 12, 2018

Gladstone Dispatch - April 12

Oak Park High School HOSA Future Healthcare Professionals recently competed at the state competition in Rolla, at the Missouri University of Science and Technology. Students qualified for nationals by placing in the top three of their events: Abby Oyesam for pharmacology and Keely Tomlin for transcultural healthcare.

Missouri S&T French film series to continue this month

Phelpscountyfocus.com – April 12
“Far From Men” and “Neither Heaven Nor Earth,” the fourth and fifth films in the Tournées Film Festival, a grant program that helps to bring the best of contemporary French film to American universities, will be shown as a double feature this month at Missouri University of Science and Technology. All films in the series are free and open to the public.

Winners of AFS/FEF Student Technology Contest Announced at Metalcasting Congress
American Foundry Society – April 12
Two students shared first prize in the 2018 AFS/FEF Student Technology Contest at the 122nd Metalcasting Congress in Fort Worth, Texas, April 4. Trevor Constance from Missouri University of Science & Technology and David Sánchez from Instituto Tecnológico de from Instituto Tecnológico de Saltillo were named co-winners of the annual competition, which required students to create digital posters of their metalcasting research and present their projects at Congress.

Missouri S&T Observatory to host second April Visitors’ Night*
Phelpscountyfocus.com – April 12
The public is invited to view the moon through Missouri University of Science and Technology’s 16-inch-diameter telescope on April 23. All viewings are subject to weather conditions. The Missouri S&T Observatory will open its doors at 9:30 p.m. for the viewing.

University of Missouri-St. Louis

UMSL faculty members discuss how well America incorporates immigrants on ‘St. Louis on the Air’*
UMSL Daily - April 12, 2018
Two University of Missouri—St. Louis faculty members – Adriano Udani, an assistant professor in the Department of Political Science, and Florian Sichling, an assistant professor in the School of Social Work – appeared on “St. Louis on the Air” Monday on St. Louis Public Radio | 90.7 KWMU to examine how successfully the United States – and specifically St. Louis – incorporates immigrants and refugees into the broader community.

Researcher: LGBTQ victims of bullying suffer academically*
St. Louis Public Radio - April 12, 2018
Peterson spoke Thursday as part of a youth violence prevention conference at the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Cordray on point about increase in firearm deaths in Ohio*
PolitiFact - April 12, 2018
Richard Rosenfeld, a criminology professor at the University of Missouri-St. Louis, pointed to the opioid crisis as a factor in the increase in homicides in Ohio. Using CDC data, he showed that the increases in firearm deaths are primarily in the midwest and Ohio.

The Best Thing to Do in St. Louis This Week, April 12 to 17
Riverfront Times - April 12, 2018
The Saint Louis Ballet presents Cinderella at 7:30 p.m. Friday, 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. Saturday and 2:30 p.m. Sunday (April 13 to 15) at the Touhill Performing Arts Center on the University of Missouri-St. Louis campus.

*Story generated by efforts of the university’s PR team.