

Mizzou
University of Missouri

Mizzou News Updates

Surprising Support for the Term 'Feminist' on the Campaign Trail

New York Times – November 6, 2018

"There had been a simple equation: Feminist equals abortion equals Democratic Party," said Catherine Rymph, chairwoman of the history department at the University of Missouri, who has studied feminism and conservatism. "Maybe because of the issues that are on the table this election cycle, there's space for people to see feminism as standing for different things."

66% of Toronto residents only know a few neighbors — or none at all, survey shows

CBC Canada- November 6, 2018

Research from the University of Missouri-Columbia, for instance, shows a correlation between neighborhood relationships and health. Even while taking into account factors such as someone's level of education, income, and age, people who reported that "their neighbors can be trusted" reported better health on average, the 2011 study found.

2 Sentenced to Probation in Fraternity Assault Case

US News & World Report - November 6, 2018

Two members of a now-shuttered fraternity at the University of Missouri have been sentenced to five years of probation for breaking one student's jaw and knocking out another's tooth.

Similar stories appeared in multiple Associated Press media outlets across the country.

Here's what voters are talking about at the polls today

Columbia Missourian - November 6, 2018

"I think it's important for anybody that's part of this country to be voting to show it's what we believe in as a democracy." — Alexander Cartwright, chancellor of the University of Missouri.

Dicamba registration renewed until 2020

Fulton Sun - November 6, 2018

During the University of Missouri's annual Crop Management Conference at Columbia's Holiday Inn Executive Center, Dec. 18-19, presenters will offer information on dicamba research and label requirements. The agriculture industry-focused conference will also offer updates on how 2018's drought-to-downpour growing season affected crops, pests and disease, and provides insights on how trade affects agricultural commodity markets.

University of Missouri System

UPDATE: Associated Press calls state auditor race for Nicole Galloway

ABC 17 News - November 6, 2018

One man said it wasn't easy to go up against the University of Missouri, but Galloway did and got results. He is referring to her 2017 audit of the University of Missouri System. That audit is reference below in this story.

University of Missouri-Kansas City

UM System Offers New Express License to Faculty Entrepreneurs*

UMKC Today – November 5, 2018

Eric Anderson, director of the UMKC Office of Technology Commercialization, said that while each technology advancement office within the UM System is responsible for managing and licensing technologies developed at their university, the express license is built as a one-size fits-all.

Letters: Readers discuss Canada's supposed open arms to immigrants and climate change

The Kansas City Star – November 4, 2018

Last Monday, young people around the country rallied to show their support of this case, including dozens on University of Missouri-Kansas City campus. I was disappointed that The Star's article did not include advocates in our own backyard.

UMKC Alum "Building Communities of Opportunities"

University News – November 5, 2018

UMKC Alum Tony Salazar, president of west coast operations at McCormack Baron Salazar, gave a lecture on "Rebuilding Urban Neighborhoods: Mixed-income housing changing communities and cities" Thursday night as part of National Hispanic Heritage Month.

Student plaintiffs take on United States in the #trialofthecentury

University News – November 6, 2018

Levi Draheim is 11 years old and suing the United States government for violating his constitutional rights. "It's an environmental case," said UMKC School of Law professor Dr. Irma Russell. "But it's about our rights rather than the environment as a separate party."

Missouri University of Science and Technology

Missouri S&T installs advanced lead-battery microgrid system*

Energy Storage Networks – November 6, 2018

Missouri S&T has installed two new advanced lead battery microgrid systems at the campus's EcoVillage, a "living laboratory" that is home to solar-powered houses designed and built by Missouri S&T students.

Callon Petroleum Announces Jeffrey Balmer to Succeed Gary Newberry as Chief Operating Officer

Morningstar – November 6, 2018

Callon Petroleum Company (NYSE: CPE) ("Callon" or the "Company") today announced that Jeffrey S. Balmer will succeed Gary A. Newberry as Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, effective December 10, 2018. ... He holds B.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Petroleum Engineering, in addition to an M.S. in Environmental and Planning Engineering, from Missouri University of Science and Technology (formerly University of Missouri – Rolla). This news article appeared in more than 360 media outlets across the country.

Possible no-confidence vote in WSU president, board still months away

Dayton Daily News – November 6, 2018

If Wright State University's faculty decides to hold a vote of no confidence for the school's president or board of trustees it would likely be months away. Wright State's faculty senate on Monday voted against shortening the process that could eventually lead to a vote. ... At her previous school, the Missouri University of Science and Technology, Schrader faced rumblings of a no-confidence vote among faculty.

S&T Symphonic Band and Wind Symphony to perform Nov. 11 *

Phelps County Focus. – November 5, 2018

The Missouri University of Science and Technology Symphonic Band and Wind Symphony invite the public to attend their fall concert in November.

Electric Vehicles and Homes Connect to Microgrids in the US and Africa*

Microgrid Knowledge – November 5, 2018

Residential microgrids remain rare, but they are emerging in different places throughout the world. The Missouri University of Science and Technology has installed lead batteries for residential microgrid systems within its EcoVillage. The project serves as a test for members of Missouri S&T's Microgrid Industrial Consortium — a group interested in lead battery use for residential microgrids.

Newsmakers: Nov. 5-11, 2018

Springfield Business Journal – November 5, 2018

Missouri State University selected Matt Blunt for the Bronze Bear Award to be given in December. As governor of Missouri in 2005, Blunt signed Senate Bill 98 to drop Southwest from the school's name, and MSU officials say he fought for an operating budget increase that helped start its engineering partnership with Missouri University of Science and Technology.

The Chronicle of Higher Education

What the Midterm Elections Mean for Higher Ed

The Chronicle of Higher Education – November 7, 2018

Was it a wave? Maybe not. But for Democrats, it was a win. They weathered disappointments in some high-profile races that had appeared winnable Tuesday night, and they lost three U.S. Senate seats in the face of a challenging map. But Democrats seized control of the U.S. House of Representatives, tipping at least 26 seats to emerge with a clear majority. In doing so, they earned the opportunity to step up oversight of the polarizing presidency of Donald J. Trump.

*Story generated by efforts of the university's PR team.